Friday, November 19, 2004
St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands

Game No. 1 / Paradise Jam

After the Billikens rallied from a 13-point deficit to take the lead, Governors guard Maurice Hampton threw in a long trey at the horn to send the game to OT. Guard Levi Carmichael scored all of the Governors' points in OT as the Gavs held the Billikens scoreless from the field in the extra session.

Hawai'i 53, Saint Louis 52 Saturday, December 4, 2004 Savvis Center, St. Louis, Mo.

Game No. 5

Hawai'i forward Julian Sensley banked a leaning jumper from the left side with 15 seconds left to hand SLU its second straight one-point loss at home. Bills senior forward Izik Ohanon had an uncontested 16-foot jumper to win the game, but it rimmed out. The Bills had a 14-0 run in the second half to take a nine-point lead, but couldn't hang on.

Game No. 11

Southeast Missouri State never trailed as the Indians romped past Saint Louis. The offense-starved Billikens lost their third in a row and were hurt by the absence of leading scorer Reggie Bryant, who missed the game with an eye infection. Senior center Tom Frericks also was lost with a concussion five minutes into the game.

Game No. 14

Saint Louis trailed only 23-22 until the 20th-ranked Bearcats went on a 9-0 run to open a 10-point halftime lead. After SLU guard Reggie Bryant nailed a tray to open the second half, the Billikens never got closer than nine points. Cincinnati shot 54.5 percent from the arc in the first half and finished with nine trays for the game to thwart SLU's sagging man-for-man defense.

Marquette 55, Saint Louis 51 2OT Saturday, January 29, 2005 Savvis Center, St. Louis, Mo.

Game No. 19

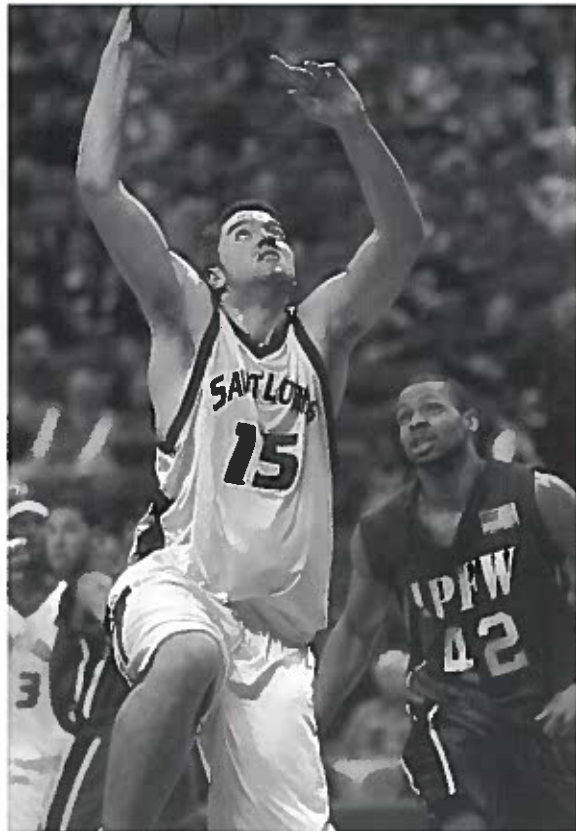

Saint Louis let an eight-point lead slip away in the final four minutes of regulation as the Golden Eagles prevailed in SLU's first double-overtime game since the 2002-03 season. Marquette played without All-Conference guard Travis Diener, who missed his second straight game with a foot injury. SLU's Izik Ohanon posted his second career double-double.

Game No. 28

Saint Louis forward Izik Ohanon celebrated Senior Night with a career-high 26 points, and he added 10 rebounds as the Billikens snapped a four-game home losing streak. SLU jumped out to a 15-2 lead, stretched that lead to as many as 18 in the second half and held off a number of Memphis rallies.

Game No. 30 / C-USA 1st Round

Memphis shot 60 percent from the field in the second half to blow the game open. Early foul trouble to SLU big men Izik Ohanon and Ian Vouyoukas took away the interior play that helped the Billikens dominate the Tigers just a week earlier in St. Louis.
